IE ARCHITECTURE+ PRIZE
YOUNG ARCHITECTS | 2013-15

Presentation.

IE School of Architecture and Design announces its second IE ARCHITECTURE+ PRIZE for young architects, seeking to attract top architecture talents from around the world and invite them to take part in the IE Master in Design for Work, Retail and Learning Environments or the IE Master in Architectural Management and Design starting next February 2016.

All young architects graduated in the field of architecture between 2013 and 2015 and who were ranked top 15% of their class are eligible to win the IE ARCHITECTURE+ PRIZE.

The winning entries will be awarded admittance to IE Master in Design for Work, Retail and Learning Environments or IE Master in Architectural Management and Design for the 2016-2017 academic year and a scholarships towards the program tuition fees.

IE School of Architecture & Design.

IE School of Architecture & Design is one of the leading architecture schools in Europe. Through its unique combination of design, innovation and management, IE School of Architecture & Design expands the boundaries of traditional architectural education.

IE welcomes students who seek challenges and aspire to become leaders in the dynamic world of architecture and design.

IE Master in Architectural Management and Design.

The Master in Architectural Management and Design combines management with advanced design studies. Participants will explore the relationship between architecture and management with top business professors and leading design professionals.
IE Master in Design for Work, Retail and Learning Environments.

The Master in Design for Work, Retail and Learning Environments is a forward thinking post-professional program that not only examines the profound changes occurring in environments for work, retail and learning, but also explores the tools and knowledge needed to innovatively design these spaces for the future. The IE Master in Design Work Retail and Learning Environments is a pioneering program as it stretches across traditional boundaries based on analyses, skills and strategies for understanding and proposing creative ideas for changing environments.

The program focuses on three types of space— the work space, retail and learning environments— that are most important for our everyday lives and which are the three realms where the most dramatic changes are occurring in terms of concepts, technology and cutting-edge innovation.

Requirements.

All young architects graduated in the field of architecture between 2013 and 2015 and who were ranked top 15% of their class are eligible to win the IE ARCHITECTURE+ PRIZE.

Registration:

There are no registration fees for the IE ARQUITECTURA+ PRIZE.

The registration will be managed by the participants through the competition page www.iearchitectureplusprize.com and the competition web platform www.arquideas.net.

Queries:

During the period indicated in the competition calendar that has been included in these Terms and Conditions, questions about this competition can be sent to architectureplus@arquideas.net.

Arquideas, as competition manager, will respond to all of the questions posed during the established period and will publish answers to questions deemed to be of particular interest to all participants in order to improve the comprehension of the project and resolve doubts.

All the documentation needed to take part in the prize can be downloaded from the competition page www.iearchitectureplusprize.com and the Arquideas web site www.arquideas.net throughout the registration period.

Documents to be submitted:

Each participant must submit within the submission period and before the deadline the required documentation in digital format through the competition web platform www.arquideas.net, completing the necessary data in the registration and submission forms.

Each participant will make a short work of his Final Degree Project, highlighting in the submitted material the most representative aspects from the project. Both, the architectural quality of the projects and the ability of each participant to clearly convey the idea of the project, will be considered by the Jury.

The following files must be submitted:
- Two (2) DIN A1 posters (594x841mm.) in vertical disposition, in one single *.PDF file at 300dpi containing the graphic information about the project. The contents and drawing scales shall be free, at the discretion of the participant, for a better understanding of the project. The maximum file size is of 16 Mb.

- One (1) *.JPG file with a maximum recommended size of 1200px wide (about 1200x1700px) as summary cover of the project. This image will be used in the web preview, browser and project listings and will not be evaluated by the Jury.

- One (1) DIN A4 sheet in *.PDF format with a brief description of the project.

- One (1) DIN A4 sheet in *.PDF format with a text explaining the motivation to enter one of the IE School of Architecture and Design Master Programs.

The documentation will be studied by the Jury members maintaining the anonymity of participants, so that the documents must be identified solely with the identification code provided during registration process and placed at the top right corner of each panel or document (Example: APP 0123).

All texts must be in ENGLISH.

The finalists will have an interview with the admissions department.

The project submission deadline is until 24:00 hrs (GMT +0:00) of the last submission date.

Exhibition and publication.

All of the proposals presented by participants will be part of a virtual exhibition on the competition platform web site www.arquideas.net, with a special focus on the top Prizes and the Honorable Mentions.

Property rights.

All of the documentation presented to this prize will become part of the Arquideas archive, which reserves the right to promote and publish the presented proposals.

Therefore, participation in the competition authorizes the reproduction, distribution and communication of the projects submitted to IE School of Architecture and Design and Arquideas.
The material presented can be published in virtual galleries on the Arquideas website, as well as on websites of collaborating media.

If necessary, IE School of Architecture and Design and Arquideas reserve the right to adapt the content of presented proposals to ensure their correct publication, without modifying the plans in any way.

Participants guarantee they are the legitimate owners of the work submitted and ensure they do not violate intellectual or industrial property rights of third parties.
